ABOUT GRAPEVINE

Just between Dallas and Fort Worth, the City of Grapevine is truly a place that has something for everyone. A historic downtown, a recognized and coveted school district, and established upscale neighborhoods cater to this family-based community. In addition, Lake Grapevine boasts 8,000 acres of recreational water and more than 19 miles of wilderness trails. Grapevine's unique combination of classic and modern make the city the centerpiece of DFW, a city where Main Street meets the world.

With a population of 58,225 according to the 2021 United States Census, Grapevine is the 64th largest city in Texas.

"Aged to Perfection"

EDUCATION

Grapevine-Colleyville ISD serves the communities of Grapevine and Colleyville and portions of Southlake, Euless and Hurst. Made up of 21 campuses and over 14,000 students, GCISD inspires, encourages and empowers students to achieve their full potential in a global society. Their mission is to be THE BEST.

GCISD promotes good citizenship and prepares, motivates and encourages each student to reach his or her full potential. These goals are accomplished within a safe, caring, cooperative environment. GCISD's teachers and staff are recognized throughout the state and nation for excellence and innovation and have an average of 13.5 years of experience.

GSISD also has award-winning Emergency Management and School Security, Nutritional Services and Financial Services Departments and was named a Top 100 Place to Work.
