EDUCATION

Northwest Independent School System is home to learners and leaders who receive exemplary educational support and extracurricular offerings as they prepare for their long-term future. NISD believes students should be prepared for wherever their personal paths take them, including college, a career, the military and life in general. NISD serves more than 27,000 students in 14 cities, towns and communities across three counties. No matter how much enrollment grows, NISD's 30 schools are always guided by the belief that kids come first.

Northwest ISD serves Aurora, Haslet, Justin, New Fairview, Newark, Northlake, Rhome and Trophy Club along with portions of Flower Mound, Fort Worth, Keller, Roanoke, Southlake, and Westlake. One of the largest school districts in the area, Northwest ISD's geographical area extends into Denton, Tarrant and Wise Counties.
